Solutions without raising taxes – Real Support for Local Businesses – End the standard political campaign clichés

February 23, 2010

Dear Ellen,

Well I told you that I'm giving them "what for" as we used to say in West Texas. If nothing else maybe I'll help to keep them on the specifics of exactly what they plan to do to get us out of the economic mess that we are in.

I never thought I would see the day when I would say this—you've known me a hundred years so it must shock you too—but I swear there is so little daylight between a Democrat and a Republican today that they are indistinguishable to me.

The ONLY difference is that the Democrats still do throw the larger crumbs to us on Main Street. But the key word is "crumbs". We need REAL solutions to repair the damage they have done. We don't need more political clichés. As you know, they are about as worthless as a July spit in the West Texas wind.

Well, I'm riled up and ready to go. I plan to stay in this mode until after Election Day in November.

Hugs and love to one of my dear childhood friends.

Liz

P.S. Thanks for your offer to let me put a sign in your yard in Plano. I'm going to take you up on that as soon as I get some signs designed and printed.
